Domestic Violence Board to Meet

The Michigan Domestic Violence Prevention and Treatment Board will meet Tuesday, July 10, 2001, from 10:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., at the Lake Pointe Manor Banquet and Conference Center in Howell.

The board is appointed by the governor to coordinate domestic violence services and is housed within the Family Independence Agency.

July agenda highlights include board reports regarding treatment of consumers; financial condition; board members code of conduct; asset protection; executive director succession; legislative updates; the Governor's Domestic Violence Homicide Prevention Task Force update; and review of a facilitation report conducted for domestic violence staff.
